

Clinical Supervision: Competent and Ethical Practice

Presented by Tom Thompson, Ph.D.

Associate Director of Psychology Services, Murdoch Developmental Center

Friday, September 5th, 2008, 9:00am – 4:00pm

UNC-Wilmington

Wilmington, NC

Objectives:

At the completion of this workshop participants should be able to:

- ❑ List the key features of four models for providing clinical supervision.
- ❑ Understand the importance of Diversity issues in providing supervision.
- ❑ List six elements of the APA Code of Conduct and Ethical Principles for Psychologists that are pertinent to supervision.
- ❑ List four key elements of supervisory liability and malpractice.
- ❑ List three key features of the evaluation of the supervisory process.
- ❑ List six responsibilities of supervisors under the NC Psychology Practice Act.
- ❑ State the timelines and complete the forms necessary to conduct supervision under the Act.

The Presenter

Dr. Thompson has been a licensed psychologist in North Carolina and supervisor for more than 16 years. He has experience providing supervision for more than 50 supervisees including LPA staff psychologists, ancillary services providers, and interns. He has served on the North Carolina Psychology Board for 9 years. Dr. Thompson has a thorough understanding of the legal issues that most frequently adversely affect supervisors in North Carolina. His presentation is based heavily on the text: “Clinical Supervision: A Competency-Based Approach” by Carol Falender and Edward Shafranske, and the North Carolina Psychology Practice Act. For further information on Dr. Thompson, please visit our website: www.nc-aba.com.

Workshop Level: Intermediate

Continuing Education Credit:

The program is co-sponsored by the North Carolina Psychological Association and the North Carolina Association for Behavior Analysis. The North Carolina Psychological Association is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The North Carolina Psychological Association maintains responsibility for this program and its content. This program is offered for 6 hours of continuing education credit. In addition, this workshop is BACB approved for 6 hours of continuing education credits.

Registration Information:

If you register on or before August 26th, 2008 there is a special early registration fee of $90.00 to attend this workshop. A student rate of $45.00 is available with proof of current full time student status. You will receive a full refund for cancellation received on or before August 29th, 2008. No refund will be provided for cancellation received on or after August 30th, 2008.

Register online now at www.nc-aba.com