

Functional Assessment and the Analysis of Behavior

Presented by R.M. “Duke” Schell, Ph.D.
Director of Psychology, J. Iverson Riddle Developmental Center

Friday, September 5th, 2008, 1:00pm – 4:00pm
UNC-Wilmington
Wilmington, NC

Objectives:

At the completion of this workshop participants should be able to:

- ❑ List three historical issues about the Functional Assessment (FA), including its scientific, legal, and advocacy origins.
- ❑ List three differences among the terms Functional Assessment (FA), the experimental analysis of behavior (EAB), and Positive Behavior Support (PBS).
- ❑ List three differences between the indirect/descriptive and direct/structured forms of functional assessment.

The Presenter

Dr. Duke Schell is Director of Psychology at the J. Iverson Riddle Developmental Center (formerly Western Carolina Center), a public residential facility serving people with mental retardation and related disabilities. He received his Ph.D. in psychology from Florida State University in 1987, with an emphasis in applied behavior analysis, and has served as President of the NC chapter of the American Association on Mental Retardation (NCAAMR) and the NC chapter of the Association for Behavior Analysis (NCABA). He has also served as the Psychology Division Chair of the Southeastern Region of AAMR. For further information on Dr. Schell, please visit our website: www.nc-aba.com.

Workshop Level: Intermediate

Continuing Education Credit:

The program is co-sponsored by the North Carolina Psychological Association and the North Carolina Association for Behavior Analysis. The North Carolina Psychological Association is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The North Carolina Psychological Association maintains responsibility for this program and its content. This program is offered for 3 hours of continuing education credit. In addition, this workshop is BACB approved for 3 hours of continuing education credits.

Registration Information:

If you register on or before August 26th, 2008 there is a special early registration fee of $55.00 to attend this workshop. There are also special rates available for anyone who would like to attend both this workshop and another workshop on Friday, September 12th, 2008. A student rate of $25.00 is available with proof of current full time student status. You will receive a full refund for cancellation received on or before August 29th, 2008. No refund will be provided for cancellation received on or after August 30th, 2008.

Register online now at www.nc-aba.com