Preparing for Board Certification in Forensic Psychology
With Maureen L. Reardon, Ph.D., ABPP, Forensic Psychologist, Independent Practice

This workshop will emphasize the benefits and demystify the process of board certification. Drawing from her experiences working with candidates, reviewing practice samples and conducting oral examinations, Dr. Reardon will offer useful tips for how best to prepare for each step of the process and avoid common errors. This workshop includes suggestions for useful resources, recommendations for efficiency, and incorporates feedback from board certified forensic specialists with involvement in each stage of the process.

Fee: NCPA Members - $15.00; Non-members - $30.00
Instructional Level: Intermediate
Educational Format: Lecture

Learning Objectives:
By the end of the institute, participant will be able to:

1. describe the credentialling and examination requirements for board certification,
2. describe the foundational and functional forensic core competencies, including ethics and individual diversity; and
3. identify at least three resources useful in preparing for board certification

Instructor:
Maureen L. Reardon has a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Florida State University and is board certified in forensic psychology by the American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP). During her tenure with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, she completed numerous forensic evaluations of competency, sanity, and violence risk and for two years, was responsible for the oversight of the institution’s forensic evaluation program. Currently, Dr. Reardon maintains an active clinical and forensic practice based in Raleigh, North Carolina. She is Past President (2019) of the American Board of Forensic Psychology (ABFP) and presently serves as examination faculty and co-chair of continuing education for the American Academy of Forensic Psychology (AAFP).

Continuing Education Information:
This workshop is sponsored by the North Carolina Psychological Association (NCPA). NCPA is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Continuing Education (CE) for psychologists. NCPA maintains responsibility for this program and its content. This workshop is offered for 1 hour of Category A credit.

Attendance Requirement for CE Credit:
To receive CE credit, you must attend the entire workshop. No credit will be given to participants who are more than 5 minutes late at the beginning of the workshop. You must be present at the close of the workshop and sign-in and sign-out. You may not be excused early. Partial credit is not provided.