The State of North Carolina has enacted new rules for the practice of psychology since the last period of license renewal. Changes include expanded continuing education requirements, new training for supervisors, and a mandatory ethics refresher for all licensees. This course is designed to inform, explain, clarify, and reassure as licensees prepare for successful renewal.

Instructional Level: Basic
Educational Format: Lecture, Q&A and small group exercises

Workshop Description

The State of North Carolina has enacted new rules for the practice of psychology since the last period of license renewal. Changes include expanded continuing education requirements, new training for supervisors, and a mandatory ethics refresher for all licensees. This course is designed to inform, explain, clarify, and reassure as licensees prepare for successful renewal.

Learning Objectives

1. Apply the Board’s new rules regarding continuing education for successful license renewal.
2. Apply the Board’s new rules for supervisor training for successful license renewal.
3. Demonstrate an increased ability to confidently approach the new ethics refresher for successful license renewal.

Susan Hurt, PhD, JD is a licensed psychologist and attorney. She has served on the Psychology Board since 2018. She currently practices as a forensic psychologist in the Pretrial Forensic Evaluation Unit at Central Regional Hospital, and serves as a consultant in Police and Public Safety Psychology with Law Enforcement Services, Inc, in Greensboro, North Carolina. Dr. Hurt maintains a small private practice devoted to individual psychotherapy.
Date, Time & Meeting Mode:
Saturday, June 25, 2022
Saturday, July 9, 2022
9:00 am - 12:15 pm
(with a 15-minute break)
Via Zoom

Registration Deadline:
Preregistration is required. You must register by the Wednesday prior to each offering (June 22 and July 6).

Refund Policy:
No refunds on or after Wednesday, June 22, 2022 for the June 25th workshop and no refunds on or after Wednesday, July 6, 2022 for the July 9th workshop. All refunds are minus a $25 processing fee.

Continuing Education Information:
These workshops are sponsored by the North Carolina Psychological Association (NCPA). NCPA is approved by the American Psychological Association (APA) to offer Continuing Education (CE) for psychologists. NCPA maintains responsibility for this program and its content. Both workshops are offered for 3 ethics hours of Category A CE credit.

Attendance Requirement for CE Credit:
To receive CE credit, you must attend the entire workshop. No credit will be given to participants who are more than 15 minutes late at the beginning of any continuing education offering. No credit will be given to those participants who leave more than 15 minutes before the end of the presentation. No credit will be given to those participants who are not present or actively participating for more than 15 minutes (beyond the allotted break time) i.e. not participating in breakout sessions.

Cost
NCPA Member - $75.00
Non-NCPA Member - $90.00

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER.

www.ncpsychology.org